On a radio call-in program in SF in early 2/68, a listener told me that one John White had a Cesna plane he flew from Miami (operating out of Nassau, however), carrying small guns to Cuba (1962). He is 5 ft 7 in, stocky, well built, with a then-tanned light complexion. He is 40 or more, odd, had a reputation for being a fighter all his life.